Almoner Report

6th November 2013

I attended the funeral today of our late Brother, Terry Fuller. His family held a service of thanksgiving at the Lewisham United Reform church which was attended by over thirty of his friends, family and brethren from his various masonic commitments.

The service was taken by our very own Worshipful Master, Steve McIntyre- Stewart and was followed by a service at Lewisham Crematorium.

Bro Terry joined Evingar Lodge early in 2012 but was a member of lodges in London, Middlesex and Kent due to him being a proficient organist. Born in Dorset in 1945, Terry retired from the army in 1979 where he was a member of the 3rd Royal Tank Regiment Band. Terry went on to fulfil his love of music by playing in church and lodges but also became a hospital chaplain.

The service of hymns and readings included Andrea Bocelli's and Sarah Brightman's 'Time to say Goodbye' as well as 'Amazing Grace' and the more traditional, 'The Day thou Gavest'.

There were no flowers and donations were requested to be made to the RMTGB.
